The 2010 Spring Wine Festival, on Sunday 5th September, is held in aid of the Woodland School in Magaliesberg.

It is an outdoor festival and is held on a large country estate in the countryside of Magaliesberg, approximately 40 minutes drive from Johannesburg. It is picturesque with lots of lawn, trees to sit under and a river to stroll along.

Our emphasis is on tasting South Africa's best wines in a tranquil outdoor setting. To this end, more than 110 wine producers will present in excess of 600 wines for the adult tasters' enjoyment. This is a family festival, with supervised entertainment for children while the parents relax and enjoy the wines in the countryside.

It is a relaxing, fun family day and you can enjoy wine as it was meant to be enjoyed! Relax and enjoy huge shady trees, lush green grass and an abundance of birdlife, while your kids have fun in the great outdoors! Jumping Castles & Supervised Entertainment for children will be available for a nominal fee.

Sunday 5th September 2010 - Gates open at 11h00. The festival runs from 11h00 to 15h00.

Designated Drivers get in free

At our inaugural festival in 2001, Cellar Rats Wine Club introduced the policy that Designated Drivers get in free. To our knowledge we are still the only wine festival who offers this to our patrons.

Please Note

In support of the school fundraising, we regret no cooler boxes, picnic baskets or braais will be allowed in - Refreshments & food will be on sale. Blankets, chairs & sun umbrellas are welcome.
